July 26—Ostkrag's

The revived Mr. Ow and the Cat crew decide to assault the goblinoid war camp of the the Hobgoblin Blaztok. Mrow blows up 6 hobgoblins with a fireball and Shump and Giggles kills the last 4 at the front gate. The destroy one company of 50 goblins almost immediately. Two other goblin companies flee in terror, but the Warlord Blaztok and 20 hobgoblins appear at the wall, Red Jim, Cat Astrofee, Lily and Dr Fang all fall critically injured. They began to break into the camp, but Dr Fang was killed by the continuing ice storm. Shump summons some divine berserkers and they move north, as Mrow and Lily invisibly move around the palisade and Giggles moved around noisily.

The warlord used a fireball to kill many of the berserkers. Then Giggles crashes into the hobgoblins guarding the wizard. Mrow throws a fireball, killing some hobgoblins and injuring the warlord. A series a separate brawls open up. Goblins killed Delicate Lily, but Mrow cleared away the 25 goblins that had swarmed him and Lily. As the berserkers are worn down by the goblins, and new hobgoblins approach, Zerkwad summons up the Faithful Soldiers of the Heavenly Host to aid. Shump and the berserkers finish one large band of goblins as resistance begins to crumble. As Giggles charges his bodyguard, Cat Astrofee sneaks past them invisibly and kills the Warlord Blaztok. The remaining goblins flee in terror.

July 27—Ostkrag's

The crew returns to Shumphold to have a funeral for Lily and Fang.

July 28—Ostkrag's

They move to the mysterious Roadhouse. They are spurned at the front door when asked to put a silver in a cup and Renly and Zerkwad do so. Giggles figures out that it was a test to determine whether visitors are were-beasts or not. Red Jim unlocked the door, Renly then turned 9 of the 10 denizens as they turned into werebears. The last werebear does not respond to Shump's attempt to negotiate, but runs off instead. Shump decides to leave them a note about further negotiations, asking for a representative to be sent.
